

Ernest Kedrov

Education:

- The S. Ordzhonikidze Moscow State Geological Prospecting Academy (renamed as the Russian State Geological Prospecting University named after S. Ordzhonikidze in 2005), specialty “Geological mapping, prospecting and exploration, mining engineer- geologist, specialized in gemology”, 1996;
- In 1998 – retraining in the center of research and academic staff retraining program of MSGA.

Foreign languages:

English.

Degrees:

Ph.D. in physics and mathematics, specialty "Geophysics, geophysical methods of mineral exploration", thesis "Dynamic calibration of seismic stations of the International Monitoring System of nuclear tests according to natural seismicity data", 2007.

Research:

- From 1998 researcher at the Schmidt Institute of Physics of the Earth RAS;
- Senior researcher at GC RAS, 2005;
- Head of Laboratory of geophysical data storage and dissemination technology of GC RAS, 2010 – present time.

Editorial and publishing activity:

- Deputy Chief Editor of e-journal “Herald of the Earth Sciences Branch of RAS”;
- Deputy Chief Editor of the Geoinformatics Research Papers series;
- Member of the editorial board of the “Russian Journal of Earth Sciences”.

Publications:

Co-author of 21 published articles and 10 scientific papers at international conferences. Participated in the publication of works and international conferences organized by GC RAS.